

Welcome to the

It gives me great pleasure as president of the Capital Region Builders & Remodelers Association, to welcome you to the 2006 Parade of Homes. First, I would like to thank our Builders who have graciously contributed their time and expertise to complete an incredible group of homes for you to preview. I would also like to thank our committee, our sponsors and Habitat for Humanity whose dedication and unsurpassed compassion make the Parade of Homes a continuing success. Last, but not least, I thank you, for taking the time to view these homes and helping support Habitat for Humanity.

The CRBRA is a local trade organization consisting of professional members and associates dedicated to providing leadership, education and motivation for the prosperity of its members and local building industry.

Our goals are:

- To create and improve quality housing for our communities while preserving the environment
- To keep the public aware of the contributions of the building industry to the overall economy
- To maintain a strong unified presence in the government and the public through continuing education
- To continually strive to provide a "safer" home and business environment
- To continually strive to enhance the image of the building industry in the public eye

For more information or to let us know how we can better serve you, please contact us by phone at (518) 355-0055 or send an e-mail to crbra@nycap.rr.com. Visit our website at www.crbra.com today! Please help support our members, so that we may continue to enrich our communities.

Sincerely,
Eric Willson

The Capital Region Builders and Remodelers' Association is proud to welcome you to the 2006 Parade of Homes. This much- anticipated event features some of the area's finest builders, trade contractors and suppliers. Whether you are building, remodeling or decorating you will be able to view the latest trends in home design, construction, decorating and landscaping. The homes featured in this year's Parade of Homes offer visitors a look into different geographic areas, housing styles and price ranges. This cross section spanning the greater Capital Region will surely appeal to the varied tastes and budgets of those who visit.

While touring the homes, visitors are reminded to take time to view all details of the home, keeping in mind that some of the features may not be easy to see. Ask the builder or their representative about their choice of insulation, heating, wiring and controls. We are confident that you will be impressed not only with their outer beauty but also by the commitment of our participants to provide the Capital Region with the finest in home building.

Your ticket purchase allows you to tour all the homes, all three weekends, as many times as you wish. When you have completed the tour please vote for your personal favorite. You may drop your ballot (attached to your ticket) in any ballot box at any home. Your ballot also enters you in the drawing for some fabulous prizes!

In addition to offering an opportunity to view the craftsmanship of our members, this event also offers us an opportunity to give back to the community. Partial proceeds from our ticket sales will benefit Habitat for Humanity.

It has been our pleasure to co-chair this year's event and we have been impressed with the talents of this year's participants as I am sure you will too. On behalf of the Capital Region Builders and Remodelers' Association, we proudly welcome you to the Sixth Annual Parade of Homes!

Lisa DeGross
Co-Chair, Parade of Homes
Tangora Technologies, Inc.

Todd Stewart
Co-Chair, Parade of Homes
Stewart Construction, Inc.